WWW.LINKEDIN.COM/IN/DEANTHALLSD • DEAN@DEANTHALL.COM

ESCONDIDO, CA

EDUCATION:

San Diego State University — M.A. Sociology (expected May 2026)

Thesis (working): "Dismantling the Veil: American Sacred Nationalism as America's Embedded Worldview"; GPA 3.95

California State University San Marcos — B.A. Social Sciences (Dec 2023)

Psychology (primary) | Communications & Political Science (secondary)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Graduate Researcher, San Diego State University (Aug 2024 – present)

- M.A. thesis, "Christian Nationalism as Embedded Worldview," employing critical-theory critique, historical-comparative analysis of sermons/political rhetoric, and reflexive auto-ethnography.
- Parallel quantitative project (non-thesis): model how Evangelical identity and political alienation predict belief in election conspiracies using OLS regression on 2020 ANES data.
- Analyze perceived discrimination and powerlessness as mediators of electoral trust.
- Software/Tools: MAXQDA & DeDoose (qualitative coding), Stata & SPSS (statistical analysis).

Primary Investigator/ Research Fellow, Project Rebound Research Lab, Long Beach, CA (Aug 2022)

- Investigated food insecurity at Hispanic-Serving Institutions; designed survey and led data collection on CalFresh barriers.
- Presented findings at Pacific Sociological Association conference (2023).

PUBLICATIONS

Hall, D. (2025). "Serving Hungry College Students: An Investigation into Barriers to CalFresh at a Hispanic-Serving University." Project Rebound Journal (Under Review)

Hall, D. (2025). "Belief in Election Conspiracies: The Interplay of Evangelical Identity and Alienation in Democratic Trust." Sociological Perspectives (under review).

TEACHING & ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

Teaching Experience

Fall 2025 instructor for one lecture section of SOC 101 "Introductory Sociology" (~25 students) and two linked sections of SOC 101/SOC 296 "Community Engagement Lab" (~25 students each).

Academic year 2024-2025, Instructor of Record for three SOC 101 "Introductory Sociology" (=82 students) Student feedback (Fall 2024 & Spring 2025) highlights an inclusive, high-energy discussion environment that makes theory personally relevant; in response to requests for clearer logistics I implemented a weekly "road-map" and unified Canvas layout, further strengthening course organization.

- Provide bilingual (English/Spanish) office hours and scaffolded assignment support; consistently receive strong mid-semester feedback on clarity and inclusivity of instruction.

PUBLIC SOCIOLOGY

- Bilingual content creation (English ↔ Spanish)
- Theorist-driven TikTok & LinkedIn outreach on Marx, Freire, and postmodernism
